FÁILTE

Fáilte ón gCathaoirleach

A dhaoine uaisle,

Thar ceann an Coiste na Mí, ba mhaith liom fáilte a chur romhaibh go léir chuig an ócáid speisialta seo í Páirc Tailteann. Ba mhaith liom fáilte ó chroí a chur roimh na h-imreoirí, na bhainisteoirí, na h-oifigigh, agus lucht tacaíochta go dtí Páirc Tailteann inniu igcmhair na cluichí ceannais iomána mhionúir agus sinseareach.

I would like to welcome all the GAA supporters from across the county and beyond to Páirc Tailteann this weekend for the K Windows & Doors Junior '2', Hanley's Clean Meals Intermediate, LMFM Minor, and the Ted Murtagh's Trim Senior Hurling Championship finals. It is a special day for the members of the Drumree, Kildalkey, Boardsmill, Loughcrew Gaels/Gaile Colmcille, Ratoath, and Kílate clubs and I hope you have a special and memorable day.

This weekend sees the culmination of these championships with the showpiece senior final featuring the powerhouses of Kílate and Kildalkey who have dominated the senior ranks in recent times. These two teams have shown incredible consistency in the twenty-first century and this is a testament to the volunteerism that is happening at the juvenile levels of the clubs.

I hope that the Senior final lives up to expectations and the tremendous tradition carried by both clubs will continue. I congratulate both clubs on their achievements this season and wish them the best of luck in the decider.

The Intermediate Final sees Boardsmill and Drumree contest a game that all neutrals are waiting eagerly to see. This final will see a lot of young guns hitting the field in their first final and we wish all the youngsters especially well in the IHC final. Both teams had to battle hard in their respective semi-finals and this should add to the anticipation.

With Drumree and Kildalkey fielding a second and third team respectively on the same weekend as their first string shows great strength in depth. A tough training field is exactly what a manager wants to coach and improve their team. A mixture of a few wily veterans amongst the youthful exuberance usually whets the appetite and we hope for an exciting final.

The Minor Final this weekend sees Loughcrew Gaels/Gaile Colmcille face Ratoath and this game will be a great curtain-raiser to the Senior final. Ratoath have been knocking on the door recently with final defeats in 2011 and 2019. Ratoath is a club that is building a pedigree that requires more silverware and Ratoath will be hoping to emulate the players of 1969 and win the MHC. Loughcrew Gaels/Gaile Colmcille have joined up in recent years and have made great inroads in maintaining a hurling presence in the area surrounding the Loughcrew Cairns. Under the tutelage of Seán Geraghty, the team will be working hard to bring the cup back up to the north of the county.

I wish both teams, their management teams, and clubs all the best and hope that these young players make the most of the occasion and treat us all to an enjoyable game.

I wish to acknowledge our officials for today's games; the referees, linesmen, umpires, and sideline officials who will all play their part. To officiate in any capacity at a County Final is an important honour and achievement.

I would like to place on record our thanks to sponsors:

Senior Hurling - Ted Murtagh Clothing & Footwear, Trim

Intermediate Hurling - Hanley's Clean Meals

Junior Hurling '2' - K Windows and Doors

Minor Hurling - LMFM

These businesses have a strong connection with the county, and I acknowledge their loyal and ongoing support. I also want to thank everyone on our County C.C.C. for their efforts in organising the fixture programme. I would also thank our County Secretary Mairead Delaney for her work in the general running of our County Committee.

Also, I thank the groundsmen at Páirc Tailteann/Dunganny John McBride and Eugene McBride who has prepared the pitches to be in perfect condition for today's games and across the year with our wide-ranging number of teams playing our games. Our head steward Jim Cooney and his team have done another immaculate job in ensuring the smooth running of our games all year and once again today they are very visible and are there to help and assist the supporters in every way they can.

I wish to commend the PR/Marketing Committee, led by the hard-working PRO Ciarán Flynn, for producing today's match programme and for all their work throughout the year promoting our games. Ciarán puts in a massive effort to promote hurling in the county and his efforts must be commended. Likewise, I would like to thank our Management Committee for all their work within their different remits. My colleagues on the Hurling Development and Promotion Committee must also be praised for their tireless efforts in promoting the game of hurling. Especially Colin Brennan and John Andrews who travelled with our county teams this year. I hope you all have an enjoyable day as your club battles for the pride of the parish in what the cut and thrust of the championship brings.

And finally, I sincerely thank all our patrons for their ongoing support, and I hope and trust that you will thoroughly enjoy today's action.

Tá súil agam go mbainfidh sibh sult agus taitneamh as na gcluichí. Cuir thus leis na gcluichí!!!

Message from our Sponsors

A chairde,

On behalf of Glenveagh Homes, I would like to wish the respective teams in action the very best of luck this weekend. As proud sponsor of Meath Hurling, we have enjoyed a great couple of years with the progress being made in recent years both encouraging and a sign of positive things to come. The Under 20 hurlers enjoyed All-Ireland B success with the Minor team narrowly missing out on Silverware too. The Seniors under the stewardship of Nick Weir enjoyed a fantastic second half of the year in getting the Counties first ever Joe McDonagh win and maintaining their status for 2022 with the view to pushing on in the coming year.

Glenveagh Homes are proud to be part of local communities throughout Co. Meath and we are currently building new homes in Navan, Stamullen, Drogheda, and Trim. We will continue our investment in the wider community and champion people to 'Love where you live' in the Royal County.

Meath U20s never back down against Derry

By Noel Coogan

There were celebrations in Meath hurling circles last August when the All-Ireland Under-20 B Championship title was gained with a final victory over Derry at Páirc Esler, Newry.

Kiltale clubman Peter Durnin guided his charges to the success in his first stint in intercounty management with earlier wins recorded over Wicklow and Down. Durnin's fellow selectors were John Brennan (Ratoath), Ciarán Ennis (Kiltale), James Andrews and Neil Heffernan (both Trim).

There was no shortage of heroes on the pitch and prominent among them was Trim sharpshooter James Murray who registered 2-12 in the opening win over Wicklow at St Loman's Park. The home side kept the score recorders busy when racking up a total of 4-24 to 1-12 for the visitors. One match report amusingly suggested that the game was as lopsided as the Leaning Tower of Pisa! The board read 1-16 to 0-5 at the halfway stage and Jack Cottrell and Brian Moore also found the net for the victors.

After his very impressive first round showing, Murray was forced to retire with an injury after 18 minutes of the semi-final clash with Down in Dundalk. Jack Lanigan from Ratoath took over the principal scoring duties, registering 1-9 in the 3-18 to 2-12 win. Lanigan's goal was a fine effort direct from a sideline cut. The scores were 1-7 to 0-6 at the end of a closely contested first period and Jack Cottrell and Cormac Keyes also raised green flags for the winners.

The final was played on a Wednesday evening, August 11th, and two goals from corner-forward Mikey Cole was the difference between the sides at the end of the hour with Meath 2-19 to 0-19 winners over their opponents from the north-west. Cole netted a goal in each half as well as adding two points and his Trim clubmate, James Murray, also made a handsome contribution to the victory by sending over 11 points, six from frees and one 65.

The sides were on level terms (1-8 to 0-11) at the halfway stage and the second goal which arrived

Meath mentors reaction as the final whistle is blown after 52 minutes left the scores 2-16 to 0-18. An unusual aspect of the winning line-out was the fact that it contained two players with the name Dylan Farrell, a corner-back from Killyon and midfielder from Trim.

Meath scorers in the final - James Murray 0-11, Mikey Cole 2-2, Justin Coyne 0-2, Jack Lanigan 0-2, Jack Cottrell 0-1, Cormac Keyes 0-1.

Meath team in the final - Conor Ryan (Kiltale); Ben Holden (Trim), Gary Fleming (Trim), Dylan Farrell (Killyon); Adam O'Connor (St Peter's Dunboyne), Cian Kelly (Ratoath), captain, Conor Fitzgerald (Kildalkey); Justin Coyne (Killyon), Dylan Farrell (Trim); Jack Lanigan (Ratoath), Ian Bermingham (Trim), James Murray (Trim); Jack Cottrell (Kilmessan), Cormac Keyes (O'Mahony's), Mikey Cole (Trim).

Subs – Brian Moore (Ratoath) for D Farrell (Trim), Josh Harris (Trim) for Cottrell, Luke Horan (Kilmessan) for Coyne.

Also, on panel - Niall McNally (Kildalkey), Aidan Fraher (Drumree), Conor McGovern (Clann na nGael), Josh McGrath (Clann na nGael), Sean Murphy (Ratoath), Sean Doyle (Drumree), Callum Buckley (Trim), Adam O'Connor (Dunboyne), Harry Smyth (Killyon), Shane Clarke (Killyon), Conor Leavy

Rathmolyon took the title 25 years ago

By Noel Coogan

Twenty-five years ago Rathmolyon gained the second of their three Meath Senior Hurling Championship titles with a victory over Kilmessan in the 1996 title decider at St Loman's Park, Trim.

In 1993 the Jubilee Cup went to 'the village' for the first time in a decider in which both sides were bidding to make the big breakthrough success. Wolfe Tones provided the opposition and at the end of the hour, Rathmolyon had just one point to spare, 2-14 to 4-7.

In the '96 campaign, Rathmolyon failed to sparkle in the early rounds and concern was expressed over the concession of ten goals in the group games. Three of those were leaked against Kilmessan in the opening round clash which the eventual outright winners lost by 2-7 to 3-10.

The side coached by Dave Foley with Billy Byrne and John Gorry fellow-selectors gained wins over Kildalkey and Kiltale but again found Wolfe Tones difficult opponents. The Oristown parish outfit forced a 3-8 each draw before the men in green and white won a play-off by 3-8 to 2-5 to earn a place in the last four.

That was followed by a closely-contested semi-final in which Killyon were outpointed by 0-13 to 0-12. There were no goals in the 'semis' of 25 years ago with Kilmessan registering 0-17 to 0-11 for Dunderry, Nicky Horan putting over 14 points, 10 from frees.

Despite their defeat to Kilmessan, who had lost the previous two title deciders to Trim, at the start of the championship, the Meath Chronicle predicted a Rathmolyon victory. Following the 0-10 to 1-2 over the 24 times past winners, the paper carried a bold 'RATHMOLYON ROUT' headline. Such was strange considering that the winning margin was only four points and the scores at the halfway stage were 0-5 to 1-1. Still Rathmolyon were worthy victors as rising star Nicky Horan was restricted to one point. Ger O'Neill netted the goal.

In the Chronicle match report, Conall Collier wrote: "Rathmolyon outplayed their opponents in all departments and restricted them to just three scores. Rathmolyon's defence would have made Scrooge look generous”.

John Gorry played a starring role at centre-field and Mike Cole took the individual scoring plaudits with a contribution of five points. Dave Foley was banished away from the playing area by referee Jimmy Henry in the second half, who sent off Kilmessan player Jimmy Maguire near the end. Kilmessan were without dual star Jimmy McGuinness, who was serving a suspension following the All-Ireland football final against Mayo.

After the final whistle, Hurling Board chairman Sean Colgan presented the Jubilee Cup to winning captain Denis Ashe and Gorry received the man of the match trophy.

Scorers in the 1996 Meath SHC final were:

Rathmolyon - M Cole 0-5, J Gorry 0-3, G Cole, D Ashe 0-1 each. Kilmessan - G O'Neill 1-0, N

Horan, B Reilly 0-1 each.

Teams:

Rathmolyon - C Kelly; E Regan, J Ennis, D Regan; J Murray, D Tuite, M Healy; G Bagnall, J Gorry; G Cole, P Farrell, M Cole; N Cole, M Smith, D Ashe.

Kilmessan - B McGuinness; B Martin, O Horan, C Keena; E O'Brien, A O'Neill, J Horan, N Horan, J Maguire; J Smyth, W Donnelly, D Maguire; G O'Neill, B Reilly, T Donnelly. Sub - J Battersby for O'Brien.

Referee - J Henry.

Kilmessan reversed that final result in 1997 when defeating Rathmolyon by 1-18 to 1-7 in the final. Rathmolyon took the title for the third time in 2006, defeating St Peter's Dunboyne by 2-14 to 2-12 in the title decider.

THE RISPIN BLOG

Age-old Rivals Kiltale and Kildalkey for the right to be

Kiltale and Kildalkey is a fixture in hurling circles that always whets the appetite in the Royal County but when they clash on County Final Day there is always that bit of added significance.

When they met in 2019 at the same stage, sparks flew and it took a replay to settle it with Kildalkey walking away with their first since 2011 and in doing so, breaking Kiltale's 5-year clutch on the Jubilee Cup. Neither side have tasted success since that and there has been a notable added hunger about the respect sides this year. In fact, that was the marked difference in their Semi-Final appearances as they put last year's finalists to bed in the form of Ratoath and holders Trim.

Kiltale, buoyed on by a strong County Football and Hurling contingent have played a terrific brand of Hurling with the lethal marksman Jack Regan in scintillating form along with the County Captain Mark O'Sullivan and the mercurial talent that is Ross Ryan at Full Forward. The job for Pat O'Halloran and Daire Lahart's men today will be to nullify the supply chain and that diagonal ball which works so well for Brian Gilsenan's side.

Indeed, Kildalkey the underdogs, have plenty of firepower of their own in the form of Paddy Connelly and Conor Kearney who will account for a large portion of their sides tally. They are also backboned by some extraordinary stalwarts in the shape of Máirtín Doran and Podge Geoghegan who continue to roll back the years.

The fact that football has not been a hindrance in recent weeks has most definitely been a major help to the respective teams and it is arguably no surprise to see them here at this stage of the year with full squads in tack and a strong dual player representation.

The passion that will inevitably be exuded from both Brian Gilsenan and Pat O'Halloran on the sideline ought to be enough to motivate fans and players alike and produce some delightful Hurling for the right to be crowned Meath Senior Champions for 2022.

Verdict: Kiltale crowned Jubilee Kings

Meath had many dual stars over the decades

By Noel Coogan

While Meath is generally regarded as 'a football county', some of their top exponents of the big ball game have also gained notable successes on the hurling fields.

Turning the clock back to the 1930s and '40s, the Donnelly brothers, Pat 'Red' and Tony, and Joey Loughran were accomplished performers in both codes. The playing pitch in Kilmessan was dedicated to the memory of the latter two greats in 1969. Remarkably Loughran was one of the stars for Meath's first All-Ireland junior hurling triumph in 1927 and was again a playing member when the title was gained for the second time 21 years later in 1948. For the latest success, he was joined by the two Donnellys.

The elder Donnelly, Pat, born in 1911, was a substitute when the Royal County annexed its first National Football League crown in 1933 and the trio were on the team which narrowly lost out to Kerry in the 1939 All-Ireland SFC final. As well as several other football successes at the intercounty level, the three men were part of numerous club championship winning sides in both codes.

Also on the 1948 All-Ireland JHC winning team were Brian Smyth and Micheál O'Brien and the following year the pair were stars when Meath famously captured the Sam Maguire Cup for the first time with centre-forward Smyth the victorious captain. Among the dual stars in green and gold in the 1960s were Dinny Donnelly and Peter Darby. Dinny captained Meath to the Leinster senior football success in 1964 and the strong corner-back missed out on All-Ireland glory when Galway completed their three-in-a-row two years later. The versatile performer suffered the same fate as uncle Tony with Meath gaining the 1967 All-Ireland title the year after he quit the intercounty scene. On the club scene, Dinny won many honours with Kilmessan and Skryne.

Peter Darby had the distinction of captaining Trim to their only SFC triumph in 1962 and five years later he became the third Meathman to be presented with the Sam Maguire Cup following the final victory over Cork. He also gave sterling service to club and county in hurling. Darby made his senior hurling debut for Meath as a teenager in 1955 and the following year he played minor, junior and senior hurling for the county. He was on the county senior hurling side for 12 years. On the club hurling scene, Peter helped Trim win five SHCs between 1955 and '60.

Three of the number four's team-mates in the 1967 All-Ireland triumph were attacking stars in the county senior hurling final a few weeks later with Mattie Kerrigan, Paddy Mulvaney and Jimmy Walsh forming the half-forward line for Kilmessan in their victory over Ratoath at St Loman's Park, Trim.

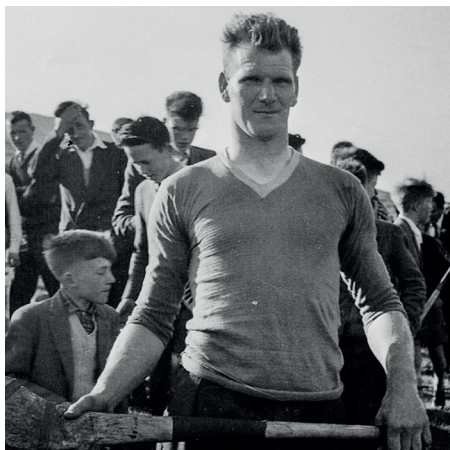

Jimmy Walsh was a dual All-Ireland junior winner, captaining the footballers in 1962 and among the substitutes for the 1970 hurling success. Paddy Christie was on Meath's first 15 for both finals and Bill Eiffe was also on the two victorious squads.

Of Meath's title-winning football sides of the eighties and early-nineties, Terry Ferguson was the most notable dual player, having also worn the green and gold for the county senior hurlers. Joe Cassells was also handy with a hurl, helping O'Mahony's to two SHC successes, while manager Sean Boylan performed for the Royal County with distinction in the small ball game.

From Meath's All-Ireland winning squads of 1996 and '99 Donal Curtis and Cathal Sheridan were members of the B Championship winning squad of 1993. They gave fine club service to Wolfe Tones and Kiltale respectively. Another dual player from that period was Jimmy McGuinness, who gained club honours with Kilmessan.

When Meath won the 2003 All-Ireland JFC in 2003 with a final victory over Galway at Cusack Park, Mullingar two of the winners' defensive heroes, Nicky Horan and Fergus McMahon, were better known as hurlers. Also on that winning team was Cathal Sheridan.

Last but certainly not least, mention must be made of Des 'Snitchy' Ferguson, who passed away earlier this month and was one of the greatest dual players in the history of the GAA. A double All-Ireland winner in football, he was unlucky not to gain a hurling medal in 1961. After moving to Kells from Dublin, he was manager of the Meath hurling and football sides and his contribution to the association in his adopted county was immense.
